

Yvette Coulier Interview

Now for another treat, let's meet Yvette Coulier of A GENTLEMAN'S OFFER. Here's her interview with Donna Byrd of Lifestyle Magazine.

DB: Hi Yvette, thanks for joining us today. So, can you tell how you felt when Nate Blackwell made you the proposition to live as a wealthy woman for a month?

YC: To be honest, at first, I thought he was crazy because the idea seemed ridiculous.

DB: Then why did you accept it?

YC: I guess because I'm a little crazy too. LOL. Besides it was a once in a lifetime opportunity to live the life I'd always dreamed of.

DB: And did all your dreams come true?

YC: In more ways than one. I met my husband and got to have fun buying top designer clothing, travel and fund causes that are important to me.

DB: I notice you are wearing a special bracelet on your right wrist. What's that for?

YC: I started a non-for-profit organization that provides care for pets that belong to the homeless.

DB: Interesting. I hope you don't mind me commenting on the enormous painting of you and Nate hanging on the wall behind you. It's gorgeous.

YC: Thank you. That's a Bernard original.

DB: The French artist?

YC: Yes, Nate's close friend.

DB: Do you two travel a lot? I know you went to Paris.

YC: Yes, we do travel, but our first trip to Paris sticks out in my mind the most.

DB: Why?

YC: It's when the fairy tale became real and well...it's a long story...
